I've got to buy some shoes
These ones are getting loose
My feet are shrinking in the sun and it ain't fun
But it looks like rain up ahead in forty miles

A big rainbow took the blue sky
I'm gonna tell my momma, I love her so
Thank you for giving me these bones o' gold Yeah, jump in the river and the water soak the sin in my soul

Fine time we all crossed lines
Make the music that makes us feel fine
Rednecks on sun decks hearing a hillside Romeo say Boys this is the good shit, so come on all and eat a little bit

And if I ever go back home, I'm gonna set
And tell my momma, I love her so
Thank you for giving me these bones o' gold
Yeah, jump in the river and the water soak the sin in my
soul

Soak the sin in my soul
Soak the sin in my soul
Soak the sin in my soul

Don't even say a word, it confuses me
What he says to do is that we don't have to

No, no, no, said we don't have to
Said we don't have to
Said we don't, we don't, we don't have to
Said we don't have to
