This life is so short and I won't wasted a minute
On this stupid shit that doesn't need to.
Giving in to temptations.
I can blow up on all occasion.
But I can't hold it in very long.
You go out every night leaving me alone.
Is this the way that you say that you want me to go.
You could've been more honest in your life up until now.
You don't have to explain that you want me to go.
Frustrating? Yes, It's jealousy waiting inside of me.
I saw you there. At least I thought it was you?
Before too long, and if you want to persist
Maybe we should try.
You go out every night and leaving me alone.
Is this the way that you say that you want me to go.
You could've been more honest in your life up until now.
You don't have to explain that you want me to go.
We've been up all night
Wait until morning time
Finding out who's right
Wait, and then will try
It's in you. I have found no other.
Acting out, is there no other way? Just don't bother.
You've got a long way to go, a long way to go.
You go out every night and leaving me alone.
Is this the way that you say that you want me to go.
You could be more honest in your life up until now.
You don't have to explain that you want me to go.
We've been up all night
Wait until end of time
Finding out who's right
Wait, and then will try
