Autumn feels so good to me
All these smiling faces can do no wrong
Take the positive, flip to negative.
Darkness begins to cloud my sight again
Where did you get it; where does it come from?
Slam the door to your past and come through again.
Flip the switch, when I say so
Flip the switch, I want to go
I've never lied to you and you shouldn't of lied to me.
Without me you can't be saved.
The spring is as good, or at least it feels that way.
With the sun on my face, sometimes I forget the pain.
Take the positive, flip to negative.
Darkness begins to cloud my sight again
Where did you get it man; where does it come from?
Slam the door to your past and come through again.
Flip the switch, when I say so
Flip the switch, I want to go
