Your playable head has so much to learn let's keep this in mind.
Grade school had an effect on me too. But I kept my head clean.
You can't have all this pent up inside with out understanding.
Keep your head up out of the sand and figure this out.
Be determined.
It's your burden.
Now be determined.
It's your burden.
All that you could have wished for in life has been handed to you.
You've never worked for much on my own, this should be no surprise.
Now that the tables have turned, now you're all grown up,
And able to see what your role is. Now look at what it has become.
Be determined.
It's your burden.
Now be determined.
It's your burden. You've turned my whole world upside down.
