Look at your life. Is it your life?
Have you lost your identity?
Don't stand their looking spell bound,
As if you don't understand the question at hand.

Waste another night. Are you with me?
Underneath light. Are you with me?
Hold each other tight. Are you with me?
Waste another night. Are you with me?

This time it's what I want.
I can't wait for you.
Your holding on to what I'm not.
And done this for so long.
Underneath it all, this makes more sense in my mind.

High expectations lead to disappointment
You try to hide what's still obvious to me.
Now you find your self with questions

Don't waste another night. Are you with me?
Underneath light. Are you with me?
Hold each other tight. Are you with me?
Don't waste another night. Are you with me?

This time it's what I want.
I can't wait for you.
Your holding on to what I'm not.
And done this for so long.
Underneath it all, this makes more sense in my mind.
