I see them staring back at me
They know my name
The faces in the sky are
Looking for something more

My friends have paper smiles and
Laugh at me in all my trials
There eyes are everywhere and see
Everything what do

They need me and
I need
See me and
I see them

Within the lines they've been
BURNED IN MY MIND

It all ends so violently I know
My sweet Pareidolia
It all ends so painfully and slow
My Pariedolia

My friends have hollow eyes
They're made of shapes and curvy lines
Their eyes are everywhere and see
Everything what do

They need me and
I need them
See me and I see them

Within the line they've
BURNED IN MY MIND

It all ends so violently I know
My sweet Pareidolia
It all ends so painfully and slow
My Pareidolia

The loneliness is

Only missed when I am alone
Oh...
Yeah...

I might try to find my light tonight
Hide my sight from eyes I try to fight
My nine eyes of light die by the blight
Ride Wight Knight unite my plight tonight

They're inside me
They're inside me

I'm inside out
I'm inside out
They're all around
Within Without
Within Without

They're inside
I'm outside
They're all around
They're all around

They're inside me, I'm inside out
They're all around
Within Without

It all ends so violently I know
My sweet Pareidolia
It all ends so painfully and slow
My Pareidolia

La lalala
