We are waking up in a pile of sh*t
The whole bed is full of it And the eggs keep growing out of our ears
But we keep swimming in this wide oceans of salty tears

I could use a break, me need to go down, down, down,
down on life
I need you to take all my shadows for a walk tonight
I could use a break, me need to go down, down, down,
down on life
I need you to take all my shadows for a walk tonight

Down the central of your sensual sense Freak, c'mon you freaks now (?), while I got the chance But keep some cool and don't, don't waste it all The day is soon to come when you're gone Need it y'all, I say

I could use a break, me need to go down, down, down,
down on life
I need you to take all my shadows for a walk tonight
I could use a break, me need to go down, down, down,
down on life
I need you to take all my shadows for a walk tonight

Like leaves
That we carry for a while but they will fall to the ground
These days, life is a calling Let's not all wait 'til life is running away But long after you're gone, your test would still be (?)
If you're here, now you'll be a part forever

I could use a break, me need to go down, down, down,
down on life
I need you to take all my shadows for a walk tonight
I could use a break, me need to go down, down, down,
down on life
I need you to take all my shadows for a walk tonight
