A Savior arises
Courage in the distance
Our hearts can feel You rising
A stirring hope within us

You're calling out for us
We hear Your voice cut through the darkness
You're calling out for us as we cry out for love

Greater than our sin
A greater love begins
Through the power of Your cross
Your love is great in us
You've taken all our shame
You've washed it all away
Through the power of Your cross
Your love is great in us

Your love spends the distance
All our sin forgotten
You're calling us to follow
You're stirring hope within us

You're calling out for us
We hear Your voice cut through the darkness
You're calling out for us as we cry out for love

Greater than our sin
A greater love begins
Through the power of Your cross
Your love is great in us
You've taken all our shame
You've washed it all away
Through the power of Your cross
Your love is great in us

Greater than my hurt
Greater than my pain
Greater than my hopes
And all my dreams
Greater than my past

Greater than my doubt
Greater than my life
Your love for me
[x2]

Greater than our sin
A greater love begins
Through the power of Your cross
Your love is great in us
You've taken all our shame
You've washed it all away
Through the power of Your cross

A greater love in us
