We cry and You hear us
Your hand lifts us out
Your love never fails us
We're desperate for You, Lord
Desperate for You, Lord

You call us out of the darkness
You are the lifter of our hands
We look to You, we look to You
You raise us out of the ashes
You are the God who never fails
We look to You, we look to You

Our fears will not drown us
Your hand pulls us out
We fall but You're with us
We can't escape Your love
Can't escape Your love

You call us out of the darkness
You are the lifter of our hands
We look to You, we look to You
You raise us out of the ashes
You are the God who never fails
We look to You, we look to You

We'll fall into You
We'll hold on to You
You won't let us go
[x2]

You call us out of the darkness
You are the lifter of our hands
We look to You, we look to You

You call us out of the darkness
You are the lifter of our hands
We look to You, we look to You
You raise us out of the ashes
You are the God who never fails
We look to You, we look to You
