3, 2, 1! yells the man with fire
A desire to touch what ever lives in the sky
What's up above?
Looking down below, grabbing his manual, and leaving his home
And leaving his

Home
Leaving for better things
A dream of only dreaming

Throned on his seat tin and wires
The fires are ready and rocket him from his home Floating up above, looking down below, damning his manual, and going back home
And going back

Home
Leaving for better things
A dream of only dreaming
(Damning his manual and going back)
Home
Leaving for better things
(Damning his manual and going back home)
A dream of only dreaming
Home
Leaving for better things
(Damning his manual and going back)
Home
Leaving for better things
A dream of only dreaming
