And it's my night,
And all I wanna do is cry
Nothing's working out,
Everything has changed,
I just want to go back to how things used to be

And I can't understand for the life of me
Why I'm acting up right now
And I can't understand for the life of me
Why this is happening right now
Help me out
Help me out.

And it's my night,
And all I wanna do is cry
Nothing's working out,
Everything has changed,
I just want to go back to how things used to be

You and me,
Me and you
Watch the four of us take on the world
You and me,
Me and you,
Watch the four of us take on the world

And I can't understand for the life of me

Why this is happening right now
Help me out
Help me out.

Star-filled skies
And the lights of the boardwalk reflect off our eyes
So unstoppable,
Only letting ourselves get in the way

You and me,
Me and you
And the four of us take on the world
You and me,
Me and you,

Watch the four of us take on the world

And I can't understand for the life of me
Why this is happening right now
Help me out
Help me out.

And It's your night,
And all I wanna do is die
Nothing's working out,
Everything has changed,
I just want to go back to how things used to be
