What do you think of me?
Am I supposed to care?
Walk around on broken glass just for you
Am I supposed to care, what you think of me?
Or should I let this all pass through my head?

And I've seen this coming for a long, long time now
And I am happy the day is finally here
So I can say good bye
Wipe the dust off my feet
It was nice to know you,
But better if I never met you at all
So long I will see you in my dreams
Cause that's where I remember you the best

What do you think of me?
Am I supposed to care?
Walk around on broken glass just for you
Am I supposed to care, what you think of me?
Or should I let this all pass through my head?

And I tried to help you,
But you would not let me
And I don't think you can even help yourself
So fly away,
You have spread yourself too thin
So long my friend I will see you in my sleep tonight
So long, I will see you in my dreams
See you in my sleep tonight

And I've seen this coming for a long, long time now
And I am happy the day is now finally here
So I can say so long,
Say good bye
Wipe the dust off my feet
I wish I never met you at all

Fly away,
You have spread yourself too thin
So long my friend, and I will see you in my sleep
tonight
So long I will see you in my dreams

Cause that's where I remember you the best
