Uh.
Come On.
Whoa.
Yeah.

I want that girl.
What she does of me, I don't want to know.
Just say her name it's like the fire below.
My knees won't work and words won't flow.
I've just got to make her see.
I've just got to find a way to make her want me.

I know I'd want this girl so bad.
I lie awake at night and think of all the things that I
would do.
With a girl like that.

I rumble my head every time I see her.
Try not to stare.
My eyes won't listen
My heart doesn't care
Does she even notice me? Doesn't seem fair.
I've got to make her understand.
God please cast a spell to tell her what a sir I am.

I know I'd want this girl so bad.
I lie awake at night and think of all the things that I
would do
I lie awake at night and think of all the things that I
would do
With a girl like that.
With a girl like that.
With a girl like that.
With a girl like that.

Suddenly I'm there.
She takes me in her arms.
I can't believe the things that I'm seeing.
Head to toe I stare.
Her perfect body there.
And suddenly I start believe what I'm feeling.
Now she's telling me.

She's never felt like this.
What matters me to feel.
That's why the electric bliss.
Such a perfect dream.
I finally get the girl.
Rapid sex machine.
What a perfect world.

I know I'd want this girl so bad.
I lie awake at night and think of all the things that I
would do.
I lie awake at night and think of all the things that I
would do.
With a girl like that.
With a girl like that.
With a girl like that.
With a girl like that.
With a girl like that.
With a girl like that.
With a girl like that.
Oh, with a girl like that.
With a girl like that.
With a girl like that.
With a girl like that.
