You look so familiar,
Yet you seem so empathetic,
Frustrations that I drown you in.
If I left would you regret,
All the little things you wish you'd said.
In my game you win.

I... I... Am I everything you wanted.
Am I?

Tell me I'm a liar,
Tell me that I am pathetic,
Tell me how I can be just like you.
Nothing seems to change,
And nothing ever stays the same.
What am I supposed to do?

I... I... Am I everything you wanted.
Am I?
I...

I... I... Am I everything you wanted.

Starting to feel sick now,
And my bodys going numb,
You've brought me to my knees.
The air is getting thick now,
As I slowly come undone,
You've brought me to my knees.

I... I... Am I everything you wanted.
I... I... Am I everything you wanted.
Am I?
I...
Am I?
I...
