The winter came early that year
But I've been saving air since spring
Froze the soil in every garden still I will seek shelter under your wing
When everything is frozen and cold
I'll still be standing

the sun is setting...

But I'm not freezing up
I invite you home
And if you stay tonight
The cold wind is fine
And I will sleep

And I'll be O.K
As long as you will stay
Guiding my heart

The winter came early that year
But I've been saving air since spring
The heat is spreading throughout my veins
I thank jesus for keeping my spirit growing
When every heart is turning to stone
I'll still be standing

the sun is setting...

But I'm not freezing up
I invite you home
And if you stay tonight
The cold wind is fine
And I will sleep

And I'll be O.K
As long as you will stay
Guiding my heart

But if you stay tonight
The cold wind is fine
And I will sleep

And I'll be O.K
As long as you will stay
Guiding my heart
