Don't you worry, it's fine
Your hand's not letting go of mine
If worse comes to worse
I'll hold tight even if it hurts

And now the ground is shaking
It's trying to tear us down
But we won't be forsaken
'Cause we know what we've found

Our love saves us
The river runs deep
But our spirits grow tall

Our love saves us now
We jump from stone to stone
But you know we won't fall

Do you remember that promise?
Remember when it was new
How deep into you I fell
I believed in us then and I still do

But now the ground is shaking
And we know what we've found

Our love saves us
The river runs deep
But our spirits grow tall

Our love saves us now
We jump from stone to stone
But you know we won't fall

Save us
Save us now
Save us
Save us now

With shivering hearts we wait
We watch the sky, we hesitate

With shivering hearts we wait
I'm still holding on

Our love saves us
The river runs deep
But our spirits grow tall

Our love saves us now
We jump from stone to stone
But you know we won't fall

Save us
Save us now
Save us
Save us now
Save us
Save us now
