I wish you are away
So far away
Away from me
I never understood
Why you were my enemies
It's been a long time
A wrong time for liberty
You took those drunk nights
Those past fights too seriously

Now I'm finally free
Did you ever care about me?
And your nightfall conceals all your fun
But there's no mistake what this has become

My force fields never yield
You can't take my energy
Tell me lies that can hypnotize
You can't escape my memory
Snakes in the lakes will obey my prophecy
We all watch em crawl
That blow in so perfectly

Now I'm finally free
Did you ever care about me?
And your nightfall conceals all your fault
But there's no mistake what this has become

And now I'm finally free
Did you ever care about me?
And your nightfall conceals all you fun
But there's no mistake what this has become
