The shadow within me The sorrow at my feet

Push the colors from the make up

Drop your feelings at the door Has anybody here had enough Walking in on so much more Gonna make you give up

I wanna see you get up

I said your the only one What's your name Who do you love I wanna hate you kill you Treat you like I've had enough

Keep breaking the shame Take away all i wanna say Regretting the day You don't believe in me Ill show you just what you wanna see The end in me

Gonna lead the revival No simple Survival For me
