

Eli

"God Weeps Too"

Visit "God Weeps Too" on MotoLyrics.com

This is for the man who never learned to read or write he worked two jobs instead of going to school I know it hurt you as a child, please remember all the while That God weeps too

This is for the widow who now must sleep alone
When the memory of a kiss will have to do Every night when she lays down you can almost hear the sound
when God weeps too

God weeps too, God weeps too
Though we question Him for all that we go through still it helps me to believe and my faith it does relieve Just to think that God weeps too

For every survivor of the wickedness of man whether a black man or a Jew some people kill in Jesus name He is not the one to blame cause even God weeps too

God weeps too, God weeps too
though we question Him for all that we go through still it helps me to believe and my pain it does relieve
just to think that God weeps too

Visit Eli page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.