walk away
something's telling me to leave
'cause I can't pray
And I'm too tired to sleep or grieve

Moments come now
for reprieve

I'll stay right here waiting for You I'll stay right here waiting for You now
please, please
Bring peace

I will forget
How to justify my lies...no plans
I tried so hard to manipulate the sky
It's not who I am

Moments come now
for reprieve

I'll stay right here waiting for You
I'll stay right here waiting for You now
please, please
Bring peace
Bring peace
Bring peace

I'll stay right here waiting for You (x6) I'll stay right here waiting for You now

wait right here
