Another empty promise, Good intentions from the start,
You failed to mention, Our love would be this hard,
I'm tired of talkin', Don't have nothing left to say,
Maybe sometime we'll sift through the ashes one day

I can't lean on you, Cause I'll fall right over,
Can't count on you, It doesn't add up,
I see we're through and the truth is pretty sober,
This is going no where, Enough is enough

The hardest part, in my choice to leave,
Was not quite knowin' what I achieved,
But now I know, I can be stronger on my own,
That's what sleepless nights and only God have shown,

I can't lean on you, Cause I'll fall right over,
Can't count on you, It doesn't add up,
I see we're through and the truth is pretty sober,
This is going no where, Enough is enough

I made up my mind I won't have a change of heart
I've removed myself from every single part of you

I can't lean on you,
I can't count on you,

I can't lean on you, Cause I'll fall right over,
Can't count on you, It doesn't add up,

I lean on you, I fall right over,
I count on you, It doesn't add up
I see we're through and the truth is pretty sober
This is going no where, Enough is enough

I can't lean on you,
I can't count on you,
Yeah, I see we're through,
Yeah, Enough is enough
