Eternal flame came on the radio
And I remember how you loved it so
Memories sneak up on me
Wherever I go

A car like you used to drive
Pulled beside me today at the light
Chances to break down and cry
Wherever I go

And you want me to be strong
Any less just shows I'm weak
How'd you turn so cold
Where's the girl I used to know

And it's love and hate and all these emotions
I never thought that you'd be going
Now i'm just going through the motions
Where everything is you
Everything is you.

An inside joke comes to mind
We'd where them out all the time
Memories sneak up on me
Wherever I go

And it seems you disappeared
Though your not that far away

Please tell me it's not true
I didn't mean that much to you

And it's love and hate and all these emotions
I never thought that you'd be going
Now I'm just going through the motions
Where everything is you
Everything is you

What did I do wrong
Nothing, I treated you like an angel
What did I do wrong
Nothing, I treated you like an angel

What did I do wrong
Nothing, I treated you like an angel
I treated you like an angel

And it's love and hate and all these emotions
I never thought that you'd be going
Now im just going
Through the motions
Where everything is you
Everything is you
I treated you like an angel
