You've got a heart that's broken and a will that's given up

A cynical mind and a soul that's worn and rough
You're a fighter, no one can get the best of you Don't let 'em stay to close that's why you play every man for a fool

I don't care you can live your life alone
Was only tryin' to show you how to love again
Tried and tried to chip away your heart of stone
Was only tryin' to show you how to love again

How are you gonna fall if you don't take that leap
You live in fear, fear of lovin' me
And I'm givin' up, I'm givin' up on you Because you'll never change and Givin' your heart away is one thing you won't do

I don't care you can live your life alone
Was only tryin' to show you how to love again
Tried and tried to chip away your heart of stone
was only tryin' to show you how to love again

love again.....

I don't care you can live your life alone
Was only tryin' to show you how to love again
Tried and tried to chip away your heart of stone
Was only tryin' to show you how to love again
Love again.....
Love again.....
Love again.....
Love again.....
