My Soul is for keepers,
My Mask is for Losers.

Who knows me in my life?
Who looks beyond disguise?

If knowledge is mistaken,
For wisdom so sacred.
You'll see me from behind the broken mirrors of your mind.
Behind broken mirrors of your mind,
That reflect the masks she left behind.

Who knows me in my life?
Who looks beyond disguise?

Her name is official.
Her face is artificial.
I know her she's my doll,
But I fear what's in her world.

Who knows me in my life?
Who looks beyond disguise?

So do you see me as I am?
Do you look beyond yourself my Friend?

Your name is official.
Your face is artificial.
My spell is in your mind.
1, 2, 3, I'm locked inside.
Behind broken mirrors of Your mind,
That reflect the masks she left behind.
