All of the sudden, I was a risk
All of the traces of love
Gone, now were gone
I have been replaced
All of the watches are frozen in place
Earth on my body
O I can't convince myself
To leave the warm embrace

I Hear Drums
I see rivers run
Down to the ocean

All of my troubles have left in a blink
All of my fears are done, undone
Now my love is full
Leave without regret

I Hear Drums
I see rivers run
Down to the ocean

Oh, oh, oh oh
Oh, oh, oh oh

I Hear Drums
I see rivers run
Down to the ocean
I Hear Drums
I see rivers run
Down to the ocean
