i see the snow as it falls, falls, falls down i take it slow as i crawl, crawl, crawl round well, i've been down and i've been up, yes, i've been low and now i'm down
and i give up

i've got a lot of words since it
i've got a lots of work to do yeah, i've got everything but time i put on something in red to hide the fact that i am blue it's christmas time
i'm still with you

i need more, i feel alone, lone, lone, lone you perform, but you don't, don't, don't care that i've been there that i've been up, that i've been low and now i'm here

it's christmas time

you kiss me without charms you hold me without arms and i wonder for how long can i go on to play this part you love me without heart and i'd come, would i despise? i've got an endless love for you but i get nothing of your time and i put on my finest dress to hide the fact that i fall through it's christmas evening

i'm stated with you

it's made for two
we're as good as blue
i'll dress in blue
