Oh, what a pleasure it's being crashed by the power of thinking the scents in the air can smell the events but there's no way to touch anything now I am fascinated by the smoke from this candle

Cure me, you know I would die for it,Â
I would die for it
I would die for it.
Cure me, you know I would die for it,
I would die for it
I would die for it.

Think I'm free from all the stuff I always have to bring with me
I swear it's a daily habit not a way to hide something but still bad enough for me that I'm so blind I won't take my eyes off the smoke from this candle.

Cure me, you know I would die for it,Â
I would die for it
I would die for it.
Cure me, you know I would die for it,

I would die for it
I would die for it.

Cure me I just need to be touched
by silence and noise
you cure me just with time
Cure me I just need to be touched
by silence and noise
you cure me just with time
cure me with no words but air, but air, but air

Cure me, you know I would die for it,Â
I would die for it
I would die for it.
Cure me, you know I would die for it,Â
I would die for it
I would die for it.
