"Just as One"

Know how hard it is to heal, oh
To clear your mind of all those shadows
And cut the strings that keep you bound here
Convinced that's all of no avail

So rise and set your spirit free
Close your eyes and you will see
Cut the strings that keep you low, and
And let your troubled mind be eased

Sure, there's no eluding our fragility
No, there's no deluding, no
You can find a reason
You can find calm
Try and rebuild it all

Realize that we can be
Just as one and breaking free
Cut the strings that keep us bound here
Close our eyes and we will see

Sure there's no eluding our fragility
No, there's no deluding, oh
We can find a reason
We can find calm
Try and rebuild it
Try and rebuild it all
