(Lyrics by Elisa Toffoli)

Together, here we are, boy and girl walk alone
Together moving like clouds
Together billions the soldiers of love in the dark Together until one will see the light
All the way alone, alone, alone, alone But together we'll always want to be
Do you wanna keep safe and keep control and stay rich
with your money and decide
for it all?
Do you wanna keep safe and keep control and stay rich
with your money and decide
for it all?
Do you?
Together the bullets fly just like birds in the sky
Together we're both paralyzed
Together drop by drop one by one til' water falls
If it's a game we're supposed to know we're playing How come some don't know?
Don't know, don't know, don't know
And together is all they need to be
Do you wanna keep safe and keep control and stay rich
of your money and decide
for it all?
Do you wanna keep safe and keep control and stay rich
of your money and decide
for it all?
Do you?
Do you wanna keep safe and keep control and stay rich
of your money and decide
for it all?
Do you wanna keep safe and keep control and stay rich
of your money and decide
for it all?
Do you?
Together here we are, boy and girl walk alone
Together moving like clouds
Do you wanna keep safe and keep control and stay rich
with your money and decide
for it all?

Do you wanna keep safe and keep control and stay rich
with your money and decide
for it all?

Do you wanna keep safe and keep control and stay rich
with your money and decide
for it all?

Do you wanna keep safe and keep control and stay rich
with your money and decide
for it all?

Do you?
