We thought our love
Would cross
Any space or time
This sweet illusion
Got me living a lie
We keep walking on
But now we have to see
Beyond the rain that falls
It's time to be strong
Can't leave my heart right
In the center of this storm

I know I have to leave you
When all I want is to stay
I can't run away from it
But I can walk the other way
I know I have to leave you
When all I want is to stay
I can't run away from it
But I can walk the other way

Our love is destructive
It's tearing me down
Our love is destructive
It's tearing us down
Our love is destructive
It's breaking me down
Our love is destructive
It's breaking us down

My world is spinning
I'm losing my ground
I know deep inside
We're crossing the line
We keep walking on
But now we have to see
Beyond the rain that falls
It's time to be strong
Ban't leave my heart right
In the center of this storm

I know I have to leave you

When all I want is to stay
I can't run away from it
But I can walk the other way
I know I have to leave you
When all I want is to stay
I can't run away from it
But I can walk the other way

Our love is destructive
It's tearing me down
It's tearing us down
It's breaking me down
It's breaking us down
