Something is changing me today
And it's quite unsettling
I can't wish it away
I feel a million things but my eyes are swollen
My vision's blurred and blank

And I can't wish it away, no
I've been looking around for you
I've been searching this town for you
But I keep runnin' in circles,
Chasing my tail again

I got books with pages on pages of love songs
With imaginary faces
But words are meaningless
When talking of feelings that I do not possess

But I can't wish it away, no
I can't wish it away
And I've been looking around for you
I've been searching this town for you
But I keep runnin' in circles,
Chasing my tail again
I keep runnin' in circles
And I'm feeling dizzy my friend
I keep runnin' in circles
Runnin' in circles
Runnin' in circles

I keep runnin' in circles
And I'm feeling dizzy my friend
