I used to send black roses
Black as the way you looked at me
Then opened up your cardboard boxes
To show you thorns you didn't see

Tears dry inside
Tomorrow slips a new day
Tears dry inside
Tomorrow slips a new day
And goes

Time is sliding by
Goes beyond your mind
The gap is always here
Not enough to gouge unreliable
Don't believe a lie

I used to send black roses
Black as the way you looked at me
Then opened up your cardboard boxes
To show you thorns you didn't see

Tears dry inside
Tomorrow slips a new day
Tears dry inside
And goes
