I hope that you, aren't just a melody
I hope that you, aren't just chords bringing me
harmony,
I hope that you, aren't an illusion of my mind,
I hope that you have a voice,
That can whisper, gentle and kind.

I have been holding this romance,
I have needed you, like the moon needs the sun,
How did I not realise how much I hungered for you, How did you just hypnotise my when I'm thinking of you,
You are in my mind, I didn't think I would leave you behind,
Come back to me, the bee's losts it's honey.

I hope that you, aren't just a melody
harmony,
I hope that you, aren't an illusion of my mind,
I hope that you have a voice,
That can whisper, gentle and kind.
