"Ocean Love"

The waves and the boats
The fish in the sea they belong together
Like you and me
Look around see what you found
They're always another surprise
Blue and green in the ocean you see the Waves rollin by
The chatter of the wind in an ice storm
You know that you'll make it through
The waves calm by the sea
They know that we're meant to be
Strong and bold just like the waves
We'll never let go of each other
I know we fight some of the time
But there's still time to make things right
Our love is strong
We can't let it down
Our love will always come first...
