Ohhh baby;

Your the only on I can think about your running through my head no there aint no doubt and when I'm fast asleep your the only one I can dream about and your the only one I can run to yourthe only one I can feel your pain and I can feel your sorrow... I know your my only one I always know what you want and need... and when I'm fast asleep your the only one I can dream about and your the only one I can hold close to meand the only one (only one) I can run to... do you wonder is this true is this right can we be sure will we get another chance like tonight... and as I lay here beginging to fall fast asleep next to me I know your the only one I can ever hold close to me the only one I can run to Ohhh baby...

Do you know your the only on I can think about your running through my head no there aint no doubt Oh oh oh...
