So did you think it would end like this
Did you think I would figure it out
Did you think she would ever talk to me
Did you know it was over when I said her name

Now your tryin to fix this
And now your tryin to play my heart again
Now your tryin to fix this
But it's too late...

Baby you broke my heart
And you played thses foolish games
And that promise you made me
Of for always and ever is gone

But now your tryin to fix this
And now your tryin to play my heart again
Now your tryin to fix this
But it's too late...

Do you really think I'm gonna take you back
Do you think all your complimenting will win me over?
After all the things you pulled
All you do is lie to me
All you do is play with my emotions

But it's over now
Your with out me
And I'm happy with out you

Now stop tryin to fix this
Your done playing with my heart
Stop tryin to fix this
Cuz it's too late for sorries
And too late for apploogies
Now stop tryin to fix this
Cuz it's over now...
