It must have hurt
When you fell from heaven
Right in front of me
(Right in front of me)

It may be the lamest
Line in the book
But it must be true
Cuz you are my angel
Standing right in front of me
(Right in front of me)

Count the beats in my heart
I think I have fallen in love
With you...
Count the days that pass by
With out you in my life

From the heavens to the clouds
From the clouds to the sky
From the sky to my arms

It must have hurt
When you fell from heaven
Right in front of me
(Right in front of me)

It may be the lamest
Line in the book
But it must be true
(Must be true)
Cuz you are my angel
(You are my angel)
Standing right in front of me
(Right in front of me)
You are (you are) my angel (angel)
