"Soon"

Soon, my dear, youll never be lonely,

Soon, youll find I live for you only.

When Im with you who cares what time it is

Or what the place or what the climate is?

Oh! soon, our little ship will become sailing

Home through every storm, never failing,

The day youre mine this world will be in tune,

Lets make that day come soon.

(bridge)

Oh! soon, our little ship will become sailing home

Through every storm, never failing,

The day youre mine this world will be in tune,

Lets make that day come soon.
