what was his name
how could you ever break these chains what made you ashamed what made u ever want to walk away so far away

where is he now hes nowhere to be found down in your soul hes left u all alone

now you're on your own
so far from home

doesn't matter where your goin doesn't matter where youve been
you know my love can save you make you born again

doesn't matter where youve been
you know my love can save you bring you back again

doesn't matter where youve been
you know my love can save you

doesn't matter where youve been
bring you back

doesn't matter where youve been

make you born again

doesnt matter where youve been
bring you back...again
