Disgrace
This place
Now I lie to you face to face
So much for self control
Tied down
I'm bound
Now I can't get up off the ground
Such a wretched soul

Life is a long long road
Pain is a heavy load

Sometimes I wonder where I'd be
If I didn't have your hand to guide me
I'm not much on my own
You know that I'd find it quite frightening
If I didn't have you standing beside me
I can't make it alone

These fears
These tears
Now I've cried for so many years
Some kind of helping hand
It's you
It's true
No I never really had a clue
I knew you'd understand

Life is a long long road
Pain is a heavy load

Sometimes I wonder where I'd be
If I didn't have your hand to guide me
I'm not much on my own
You know that I'd find it quite frightening
If I didn't have you standing beside me
I can't make it alone

Life is in Bliss your love is happiness
New life is in my soul
