To the man that leads resistance
To the great unknown
No directory assistance
Now your on your own
But if your looking for a new world
Just open up your eyes

Chorus:
Because it's not quite paradise
But it sure feels like home
Not quite paradise
We can learn to grow
It'll be alright
No it's not quite
Paradise

Tomorrow's an illusion
Yesterday's a dream
Today is a solution
But you gotta let her breath
If your looking for the answer
It's right before your eyes

Although it's not quite paradise
It sure looks like home
Not quite paradise
We are not alone
It'll be alright
No it's not quite
Paradise

Somewhere from the edge of time
When the flow is that and run so rhyme
I'll call you up and say we made it ok

Somewhere in the back of your mind
When will see your demons come to life
And the world just fades away
You know it's ok

But it's not quite paradise
But it sure feels like home

Not quite paradise
We can make this place our own
Not quite paradise
We can learn to grow
Not quite paradise
We don't have to be alone
Not quite paradise
No No, No No, No No
Not quite paradise
But it sure feels like home
(Fade)
