With Buddy Johnson

I want the whole world

To know that

I only have eyes for you

I want the whole world

To know that

I only have eyes for you

Cause I don't want nobody

To have my love but you

You'll be home cookin' dinner or

Strollin' down the avenue

You'll be home cookin' dinner or

Strollin' down the avenue

If my love comes down

I come runnin' smack dab to you

When it comes to you, baby

I'm just a natural goof

When it comes to you, baby

I'm just a natural goof

I don't nobody

To have my love but you

Some women grab the first thing
That passes by
Others like a man for the twinkle in his eye
Some like a man 'cause he's nice and kind
But I love you, baby
Because you're mine all mine, oh yeah
I only have eyes for you
Oh yeah, I only have eyes for you
Cause I don't want nobody
To have my love but you
