Bring It To Me
Bring The night
Bring the fire
Bring your soul to me

I left gravity with my soul
Knowing full well I'd come back home
The place I knew not the place I know
Everything has changed from my control
I asked why, Why send me back
It's like I'm running in the maze only to catch up with the rats
He told me this is your chance make your life right
Make your life right
Everybody has caught up to me
And the only thing's changed is the face upon me
But it's not like you would know me well
Cause your still trying to infiltrate my cell
I'm a prisoner caught in the cypher
And every chance I'm given I'm to honor the disciple
So if this is the last run for me
Know I made it to Heaven and I'm smiling free

Bring it to me
Bring The night
Bring the fire
Bring your soul to me

Bring me weak tired and uninspired
I light a fire in the souls with no homes
Hold your nose to the grindstone
The world burns brimstone
Still in a vicious cycle
Break the chain let me out of my rusty cage
I age as I turn the page so
Bring me a tattered and torn
You've been adorned since birth
So unearth the inner treasures

Do you follow where I'm from
There's only one Heaven but many suns
Sons of habit I'm a creature of force

With the nature of lust locked in my voice
Picture perfect is a world I'll never understand
And I'll never understand the reasoning of your plans
But I got the key gripped locked in I'm not letting go of this earth 'til I'm not human

Bring it to me
Bring The night
Bring the fire
Bring your soul to me
