When I was a young girl, singing in my bathroom
Hairbrush for a microphone
Nothing in the whole wide world
Couldn't take me out my world
I remember clearly what my daddy told me
Told me that the world was mine
When I didn't believe my mama told me
My baby, it's gonna be just fine
It's gonna work it out all right

E to the LL, E to the [?]
[?] did you see me on BET
Chatter with my Jeezy, smiling on tv
Blowing up on twitter, uh I, uh I think they like me
Bet my ex boyfriend wish he did wife me
When he call me up I'm a decline him politely
I don't wanna be rude, came through my new shoes
[?] sick of you
Have you seen my single, heard that I was single

I'm focus man but maybe I can mingle
I don't really rap but, think I found a new love
Saying what I want and with my swagg up too much
[?] And I'm a sign it for you at my sold out show now
[?] I'm a tell you how I feel
[?] you can sing along [?] in the winter, don't get me chills

When I was a young girl, singing in my bathroom
Hairbrush for a microphone
Nothing in the whole wide world
Couldn't take me out my world
I remember clearly what my daddy told me
Told me that the world was mine
When I didn't believe my mama told me
My baby, it's gonna be just fine
It's gonna work it out all right
