Heart is screaming
Heart is dreaming
My heart is breathing
It's breathing
Heart is screaming
Heart is dreaming
My heart is breathing
It's breathing

At my open eyes today
Saw the sun that came, came
Seems to me I can't explain
But if you don't need to know
Then just move
And just move on

Moved my world to better days
So that I could be this way
There's a place I let my soul
The, the
There's a place I let my soul
The, the rays ray down on me
Down on me
The, the rays ray down on me

Heart is screaming
Heart is dreaming
My heart is breathing
It's breathing
Heart is screaming
Heart is dreaming
My heart is breathing
It's breathing

Opened up my eyes today
Let the ray in
I was hoping that you would
Bring something to me
Opened up my eyes so I could
See you clearly
Don't believe
Don't believe you

My heart it grows a flower still
For your water
My leaves they reach the longest tree
And I'm sprouting
Can you see the flowers as they grow on me?
Can you see the flowers as they grow on me?

'Cause my heart is screaming
Heart is dreaming
My heart is breathing
It's breathing
Heart is screaming
Heart is dreaming
My heart is breathing
It's breathing

God he came and spoke to me
Said you're drowning
Said, said let it go
So I just opened up my mind today
Let the rain in
So I just opened up my mind today
Let the rain in
My leaves they reach the longest tree
And I'm sprouting
Can you see the flowers as they grow on?
Can you see the flowers as they grow on?

Heart is screaming
Heart is dreaming
My heart is breathing
It's breathing
Heart is screaming
Heart is dreaming
My heart is breathing
It's breathing
It, it's breathing
My heart is breathing
