You think one cold chick is
Gonna get you far
You think she's gonna open up
And take you to the stars
Now this cold chick is coming hard
They say the hard the come
The harder you fall
So a fall is evident in this parallel event

Night or Sin

You think one cold chick is gonna get you far
You think she's gonna take you to a place
Where you can both embrace
You think this world is gonna pass you a gold plate
And carry many dreams
You see not everything is quite as it seems

It's night or sin

I can't make up with you
When you're coming to me talking 'bout your own crew
You're selling me they don't mean a thing
And they're trying to take one over
Can't you see
Your best friend will take you down
Before you can breathe
Watch your back now

Night or Sin

You see the next one in line is trying to bring you
Trying bring you down
Trying to bring me down
While they're doing that they're bowing down
And asking me if they can clean my crown
You're in the making but surrounded by enemies

You think
What you think?
Night or Sin

You think one cold chick is
Gonna get you far
You think she's gonna take you to a place
Where you can both embrace
You can watch your back now

It's night or Sin

It's Madison
