I am lying,
You are lying,
We keep our backs turned away,
You are hiding,
But I'm not looking,
You wonder if I'm still here,
You are cheating,
Cause I am cheating,
We know that but we're still pretending,
We're still pretending,

You're the type for no good,
You're no angel to,
We'll see if we can find,
An easy way out,

Now I'm not sad,
You are not sad,
We're kept in further everyday,
We need to cut,
The one tight-ass,
Or we're gonna lose our breath,

Here we go my dear,

You're the type for no good,
You're no angel to,
We'll see if we can find,
An easy way out,

We are just raindrops,
Falling through the sky,
All we do is wait,
Until the splash,

All your goodness,
Is gone now,
And all the sweetness to,
All our memories won't remain,
We will talk too long,
All your love,

All your hate,
All your hesitation,
All your kisses,
All your touches,
Better shut out all the past,

You're the type for no good,
You're no angel to,
We'll see if we can find,
An easy way out,

We are just raindrops,
Falling through the sky,
All we do is wait,
Until the splash,

Here we go my dear,
