God I found the key I found the key
But how come it doesn't work
The sliding door is closing
I am stuck here
Please don't close the door
My dreams are behind that
I heard the voice calling me calling me

Here I am
But no one notices
There's nothing
Nothing to warm me to hold me
I am starving here

God I found the key I found the key
But how come it doesn't work
The sliding door is closing
I am stuck here
Please don't close the door
My dreams are behind that door
I heard the voice calling me calling me calling me

Here I am
But no one notices that
There's nothing
Nothing to warm me to hold me
I am dying
Do you hear me

God I found the key I found the key
But how come it doesn't work
The sliding door is closing
I am stuck here
Please don't close the door
My dreams are behind that door
I heard the voice calling me calling me calling me

Please don't close the door
My dreams are behind that
I heard the voice calling me calling me
