Spy in the house of love
Someday I will know your secrets
I must understand your past
Your story is the deepest
I got to hold the key at last
I am living in the shadows
In search of evidence of you
Clues and traces I will know
And hide from you my guilty party ruse
Chorus:
I am a spy. Ever the silent one
I spy. I just can't stop myself
I am a spy
Spy in the house
Spy in the house of love
I discover long lost letters
And learn to read between the lines
I uncover so many memories
You thought you'd lost in time
I'll get some answers to my questions
I can't live in mystery
I will mirror your reflection
There is nothing that I cannot see
Repeat Chorus
Spy in the house of love
Oh I, I gotta know
Caught in a spell - caught in the spell of love
Oh I - won't stay in the dark too long
Hiding away (hiding away) - just for the hell of love
I am a spy. Ever the silent one
I spy. I just can't stop myself
I spy. Ever the silent one
I spy. I just can't help myself
I spy. Spy in the house of love
