"Headless Princess"

(feat. Ethic)

One breath, as I sit and smell the flowers the berries the very furn
That will escreat this eroma as I sit at the ferry terminal Look at the sky abouve my eye moved towards it I soaked up an image freeze frame the portrait An instant turned into an ocean of eternity it's vincint Filled with this emotion that is burning me
From what I saw before me needs no explanation
She just rivit in my lungs there was no exhaliation So we crushed his heart into my frozen palm tearing mine my Stitches had her rosen from her farm building spines
And I must confess that I am so impressed with the way she strides
And the way she sies and the way she glydes with thoes dreamers eyes
It's more than just a turn that lies between her thighs
And through these beer bottle flavours in my life
I see clear working neibour with my slice of bliss
The door enables that awaits with a grudge
Only two emerge after you have taken the plunge
And I don't understand a serpant has a heart While I'm just a man merchant with his cart
And all I wanna do is borrow a mear couple of fraizes I admit this is the clear trouble with gauges to decode this combination Shes the glitch in my system from chaos to what is simple
It's the hitch of incription it's the persuit of chase It's the fun of the catch to find that beautiful face that lyes under the latch
When you unlock the mystery below under cover You see that simple beauty and just getting to know one and other
It's like my motor she can just sound cool
But only a few fool will ever again look into those pupils
So I pluck my vocal cords so I can sing with this butterfly
But I can't utter my thoughts and they reverse to see it flutter by

[Hook:]

Feel it in your chest, feel it in your heart
I need a place to lay, I need a place to start If this ain't it, you've been lying all along Cuz the path you laid girl, it only made me strong Cuz I was once a seed that needed, loving from the seasons feeded Off your stream that's bleedin' treason, now I'm a tree breathing freedom
On my bank but you burnt those bridges
So now I stare across at you pile of bitches

(Eso)

[Eso:]

Bars, pubs, clubs
Freak-nicks, drenched in vampires blood
But wait, she looks like a nice girl, I'd like to meet her She seems a little lost though, I'll try and reach her

[Ethic]

"Nah, that's oblivious, don't get involved She's known to hold the dice of life and let it roll"

[Eso]

Oh, I see, a bit of a gambler I'll grab my cape and a bag of convo', I think I can handle her There's stories that she owns a red light to tell the time I'm ready to judge a book from the inside as well as mine
So excuse me miss, as rude as this is I'd like you to take this tape I made I made, cuz my crews on some shit
And we hit the cofee shop, she's singin' lullabies We should probably stop, I don't wanna get played like those other guys
That's why this mix tape, is for you to borrow And if you dig this shit here's my number, call me tomorrow
And as the sun fell, and the moon climbed She went home, locked herself in her room, only to soon find That music can manipulate your mind state
And if you use it as a wish it'll find ways To blow out all the candles and know how to handle your mind, hitch hiking near my place Her night was a highlight, listening close was not what she'd usually do Her ceiling was a skyline with a beautiful view There's the vision and the truth from the booth

See girl I told you what this muthafucking music would do
The next day she was happy as hell Skipping down the block, now she's back to herself Anyone could naturally tell she's no longer trapped in a well
And the music in her mind, fool, had actually helped But all it took was a taste, to see those get muthafuckas dangling dollars in her face You punks don't know me or my eerie feel I learnt rhythm from ghosts tapping on the steering wheel
Every car ride, was like a start I've got, art in my heart Girl and there seems to be no light left, my soul is on empty
I'm running out of love, I'm running out of Mud, send me
Another note, some energised words of wisdom
Let me go, to a place of isolated vision.
But i'm steering this boat to uncharted lands
We need to understand, that one part of man It three parts of the devil thinking why I can't make this boiling water settle A dog alone in his kennel
Oh but wait, you see it's just a dead end That headless princess could've been your fuckin' best friend
Unsettled by the fact they don't see the good times Blind as bats to the future they could find
But it never really does, cease to amaze me Why I scream fuck swamp donkeys and peace to the ladies
Cuz money is a hypnotist they're dazzled by the lavish shit
You wanna give me a blow job, I'll act like I have to piss I'm no brick wall, you wanna leave, grab your shit
But don't come back in my life, like yo lets have a kiss
If only through my eyes you could see the shit
But you can't oblivious so go ahead beat it bitch

[Hook]

[Ethic]

Alright now, this is the breakdown, here is the setting Alive for 24 years and already forgetting What if felt like to be, one-half of her an me Until forcibly, I'll return to twenty-three Never have met, I didn't ever expect To have crept into a situation I never will let Be something I've left when I leave, quiet as kept

While the sea parts, the beast starts To speak hearts, I see an artful approach To convey what I wrote A thousand times, in my mind with the hope That for once, people don't just come and go Yeah, I know that I'm supposed To fly away, in a sunset serenade While tomorrow cherishes the memory of today I stay hollow, this time my back wasn't exposed To the passing of someone I never would know I never would grow, despite the cost
And at the end of the day, I've come to love the loss
And on the off chance that she falls again I'm walking backwards so she still knows who I am.
